NEW TURF FOR 2017

UNI installed AstroTurf for the 2017 season. The surface is made of PureGrass® with Armacell® pad and measures more than 77,000 square feet. There are 26 rollable panels secured by a Velcro® system. The total cost of the new turf was $900,000.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Former UNI quarterback Kurt Warner was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2017. He was named the MVFC Offensive Player of the Year in 1993 prior to leading the St. Louis Rams to the Super Bowl title in 2000. Warner played in three Super Bowls and was a two-time NFL MVP.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE

At the start of the 2017 NFL training camps, UNI had nine players represented on NFL squads.

Makinton Dorleant - Kansas City Chiefs
L.J. Fort - Pittsburgh Steelers
Deiondre' Hall - Chicago Bears
Austin Howard - Indianapolis Colts
David Johnson - Arizona Cardinals
Daurice Fountain - Indianapolis Colts
Adam Reth - Philadelphia Eagles
Karter Schult - Carolina Panthers
Xavier Williams - Kansas City Chiefs

IN THE POLLS

UNI has finished the year in the Top 25 in 13 of the last 16 seasons, and the Panthers have taken home a top-five ranking in seven of the last 16 seasons.

ALL-TIME WINS LEADER

UNI head coach Mark Farley is not only the all-time Panther wins leader (142), but he also holds the record for the most MVFC wins (88).

UNI holds a mark of 208-55-1 all-time in the UNI-Dome. The Panthers started playing home games in the UNI-Dome in 1976.

PRESEASON ALL-AMERICA

UNI senior linebacker Rickey Neal Jr. has been selected as a Preseason STATS FCS Third-Team All-American. In 2017, Neal led the MVFC in sacks, racking up 9.5 on the season. He recorded 51 tackles, with 15 for a loss. He earned a team-high seven quarterback hurries while forcing and recovering two fumbles.

PRESEASON ALL-MVFC

UNI is represented by six members on the 2018 Missouri Valley Football Conference's preseason squads. Neal (Racine, Wisconsin/senior), Briley Moore (Blue Springs, Missouri/junior) earned first-team honors on defense and offense, respectively.

TOP OF THE LEAGUE

UNI has had 51 student-athletes named to the MVFC all-conference first-team since 2007, the most in the league.

PANTHER OPPONENTS

UNI has 84 wins over Top-25 opponents all-time and 23 over Top-10 foes.

IN THE PLAYOFFS

UNI has made 19 FCS playoff appearances. The Panthers have advanced to the quarterfinals 13 times. UNI has made seven trips to the semifinals. UNI played for the FCS national title in 2005.

LEARFIELD SPORTS/PANTHER SPORTS NETWORK

IN THE BOOTH

In 2018, Gary Rima returns, with his signature catch phrase, "Oh Baby!" for his 25th year as the radio voice of the Panther football and his 26th year on the radio for men's basketball.

Scott Peterson is back in the booth for his 27th season as football color-analyst on the UNI Sports Network. Peterson was a three-time letterman for UNI in the 1970s and was a teammate of former associate head coach Bill Salmon.

In 2018, News/ Talk 1540 KXEL will begin its 19th year as the flagship radio station of the University of Northern Iowa Sports Network. UNI Athletics and The Radio Group of Waterloo have a broadcast agreement that carries the Panthers on the "Blow Torch" through 2017-2018. KXEL will carry all regular and post-season Panther football, women's volleyball, men's basketball games, women's basketball games, the weekly Mark Farley and Ben Jacobson shows, as well as other special programming focused on UNI Athletics. Panther Sports Properties works to coordinate the Panther Sports Network.

LEARFIELD SPORTS

Panther Sports Properties produces game day radio broadcasts and special programming, syndicated on the Panther Sports Radio Network, which consists of nine stations across the state of Iowa.

Many of these stations also carry "Panther Sports Talk with Mark Farley," a weekly call-in show featuring Panther football coach Mark Farley. Panther Sports Talk airs for 12 weeks during the football season on Thursdays at 6 p.m. In addition, Panther Sports Properties produces radio broadcasts of all Panther women's basketball, volleyball and men's basketball games.

UNI head coach Mark Farley, once known as the “walk on from Waukon”, has led the Panthers to a mark of 142-72 in his 17 years at the helm of the program. He is entering his 18th season as the head coach and will be leading a Panther squad with a lot of experience.

In Missouri Valley Football Conference play, Farley has guided the Panthers to a record of 88-40 for an impressive .688 winning percentage in league play. Farley is the MVFC's all-time coaching wins leader with 88 league victories.

Included in that 16-year run for Farley and the Panthers are seven conference championships, nine playoff appearances, 13 top-25 final rankings, three national semifinal appearances and one national title game appearance in 2005. Farley holds the UNI record for postseason coaching victories with 13 with an overall playoff record of 14-10.

Through his leadership, the Panthers returned to the glory days when they won seven straight conference titles and made seven consecutive FCS playoff appearances in the decade of the '90s. In Farley's 17 years at the helm, UNI has won at least a share of seven Missouri Valley Football Conference titles. UNI also has advanced to the quarterfinals (2003, 2007, 2011, 2015), semifinals (2001, 2008) and the national title game (2005) in seven of those nine playoff appearances. Thirteen of Farley's 17 previous Panther teams have finished the season ranked in the top-25, defeating 83 top-25 ranked foes in the process.

In 2017, the Panthers played only one game at home in the month of September, with road contests against Liberty Bowl-champion Iowa State and Big Sky-champion Southern Utah on the schedule.

With a 2-3 record, the Panthers had the task of kicking off their top-10 gauntlet against No. 7 South Dakota State on the road. UNI rattled off a 5-1 record down the stretch, including three victories over top 10 opponents.

The incredible late-season run secured the football program's 19th postseason berth, as UNI finished second overall in the MVFC. The Panthers hosted a challenging 9-2 Monmouth squad in the opening round of the FCS Playoffs, which UNI dismantled, 46-7. The second round paired UNI with fellow MVFC-foe SDSU, who owned a national seed. The Panthers fell to the Jackrabbits, who went on to earn a semifinal appearance.

In 2017, UNI earned 16 All-American selections, the most since 2014. Seven different players earned AA honors, the most since 2007. Elijah Campbell, Jared Farley and Daurice Fountain became UNI's first Phil Steel All-American honorees since 2011. The team passed for 3,063 yards and completed 255 passes, the most since 2005. The Panthers' 28 touchdown passes was the most since 2000. The defense picked off 21 passes, the most since 2008. UNI was ranked first in the nation in red zone offense, scoring 47 times on 51 attempts.

Daurice Fountain became UNI's 19th player to be drafted into the NFL and the sixth student-athlete under Farley. The Indianapolis Colts picked him in the fifth round. He was the 159th pick overall.

Campbell and Malcolm Washington signed as undrafted free agents with the Browns and Cardinals.

John Bond enters his second season as the quarterbacks coach for the UNI football program. He will work primarily with the offense in 2018.

Bond, who most recently published his first book "Developing a Championship Quarterback" in 2016, is an active member of the American Football Coaches Association. He has been a speaker at the AFCA Convention three times in his career and is an active keynote speaker at the Glazier Football Clinic. He has also been heavily involved in the NFL, speaking at two Atlanta Falcon Clinics and serving as an instructor at the Manning Quarterback Camp.

Bond, who has more than 30 years of coaching experience under his belt, comes to UNI after spending two seasons with Tennessee-Martin as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. In 2015, Bond coached an offense that finished the season ranked No. 15 in the country in total offense, also helping his starting quarterback to a No. 5 ranking nationally in five different statistical categories.

He was the offensive coordinator at Georgia State from 2008-12 following a stint at Georgia Institute of Technology in 2007. At Georgia Tech, he served as the offensive coordinator with the offense leading the ACC in rushing yards on the way to a Humanitarian Bowl appearance.

Prior to his time in Georgia, Bond was heading the offense at Northern Illinois from 2004-06. In 2004, he was at the helm to see the Husky offense finish 13th in the country in scoring offense, leading them to a MAC Western Division Co-Championship and to the Silicon Valley Bowl win. In 2005, he coached the only quarterback in Division I football to have a 70-percent completion percentage along with back-to-back MAC Western Division Championships. In 2006, he coached the Husky offense to a Poinsettia Bowl appearance along with the nation's leading rusher.

Bond served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the United States Military Academy from 2000-2003, earning the Mike Campbell Top Assistant Coach award by the All-American Football Foundation in 2003, also helping his team to breaking 35 offensive records that season.

Bond is familiar with the Missouri Valley Football Conference, also coaching at Illinois State from as its offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 1997-99 and their academic liaison and wide receivers coach in 1996. Ryan Clanton comes to UNI from Ventura College (California), spending four seasons with the Pirates as the offensive coordinator as well as coaching the offensive line and serving as the run game coordinator.

Clanton brings an impressive resume as a player and young coach to Cedar Falls, after directing one of the state's best offensive lines for the past four seasons, including record-setting seasons at VC in 2015 and 2016. VC's offense set records in total offense, passing yards and passing touchdowns under Clanton's guidance.

Over his four years at VC, 19 out of 20 offensive linemen under his tutelage earned all-conference selections, with four earning All-American status. Clanton was named the 2016 Assistant Coach of the Year for all VC sports, after his outstanding efforts on the football staff.

Prior to VC, Clanton spent the 2013 season coaching the offensive and defensive lines at his high school alma mater, Bakersfield Christian. Clanton helped lead the Eagles to Southern Section and CIF titles before joining the VC staff.

Outside of his official coaching duties, Clanton has also worked with youth at the Carr Elite Football Camps, spearheaded by Derek and David Carr, in Bakersfield, California since 2013. Additionally, Clanton has been a guest speaker at numerous clinics, including most recently the American Football Coaches Association in Charlotte, North Carolina, and the Glazier Clinic in Los Angeles, California.

Clanton is a product of Bakersfield Christian High School, where he helped lead coach Doug Barnett's team to the Valley Championship as a senior. He attended City College of San Francisco where he played for the Rams in 2008 and 2009, earning Junior College All-American honors on the offensive line for coach George Rush.

Clanton accepted a full-ride scholarship to the University of Oregon, where he played left tackle, left guard and right guard on the Duck's offensive line for coach Chip Kelly. He spent three seasons in Eugene, including a redshirt year in 2010, and during that time the Ducks played in the 2011 BCS National Championship, won the 2012 Rose Bowl and won the 2013 Fiesta Bowl. Clanton was a team captain his senior season and was invited to NFL training camps, working with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Green Bay Packers.

A native of Bakersfield, California, Clanton graduated from the University of Oregon in 2013 with a bachelor's degree in economics and society. Clanton also holds an associate's degree from City College of San Francisco.

Jeremiah Johnson will begin his 12th season at UNI, serving as line-backers coach.

Johnson was an integral part of UNI's defensive unit finishing ranked in the top-15 in the country in eight different statistical categories in three consecutive seasons, including a top-10 total defense rank to end 2016. He has sent multiple defensive players to the NFL, including fourth round pick to the Chicago Bears, Deiondre' Hall.

Johnson directed the defensive unit that led the league and was No. 9 in the country in total defense in 2016. He coached five athletes to earn MVFC All-Conference selections, including Karter Schult, who earned MVFC Defensive Player of the Year. Schult went on to be named a consensus All-American, earning the Buck Buchanan Award, given to the absolute best defensive player in FCS football. He was also at the head of a defense that saw a brand new secondary finish No. 5 in the FCS in defensive touchdowns and No. 12 in passes intercepted.

During the 2015 season, the Panthers finished the second ranked No. 13 in passes intercepted, No. 9 in red zone defense, No. 18 in rushing defense and No. 19 in scoring defense on the way to being one of the most powerful defenses in FCS football. He coached linebacker Brett McMakin to All-America status in 2015 and had McMakin and Jared Farley represented on the All-MVFC squads.

In 2014, he saw two linebackers, Jake Farley and McMakin, earn All-MVFC honors. Farley finished the season leading the Valley in tackles while McMakin ended his season ranked 34th in the country in total sacks.

The 2013 season for the Panthers saw a young defensive core shine while making big plays for the team. Johnson coached the defense to finishing in the top-30 in the FCS in four defensive statistical categories, including being ranked 19th in the country in total defense. Johnson also saw senior linebacker Jordan Gacke finish with All-MVFC honors.

Johnson served as the defensive backs coach during the 2012 season, seeing seniors Varmah Sonie, Garrett Scott and Wilmot Wellington shine for the Panthers. Wellington led the Panthers in tackles with 85. Johnson led Sonie and Scott to 131 combined tackles, with Sonie earning All-MVFC second team and Scott earning honorable mention status.

His previous three seasons at UNI, Johnson served as recruiting coordinator and assistant defensive backs coach. He also split duties as a secondary coach and video coordinator in 2007 and 2008. As an assistant on the defensive side of the ball, UNI's defense finished ranked in the top-25 in total defense in 2007 and 2008 under his direction, also finishing tied for third in the FCS in passes intercepted in 2008.

Johnson, a native of Lawrence, Kan., spent the 2003-2006 seasons at Loras College on the Duhawk coaching staff. Johnson assisted with the defensive backs in 2006 after helping with the wide receivers in 2005. Johnson's first two years at Loras were spent coaching the defensive backs.

Prior to his work at Loras, Johnson was a graduate assistant/video coordinator at the University of Wyoming in 2002.

A 2000 graduate of the University of Kansas with a degree in sports science, Johnson completed his master's degree in athletic administration at Loras in 2005.

Johnson and his wife, Nicki, reside in Cedar Falls with their son, Lane (8) and daughter, Drew (5).

The 1995 NFL Defensive MVP has returned for a second coaching stint at UNI. Under Paup's direction, UNI finished each year ranked in the top-40 nationally in rushing defense, total defense, sacks and tackles for loss.

In 2015, he saw Karter Schult and Isaac Ales anchor a defensive line that finished the season ranked No. 19 in sacks and No. 21 in tackles for loss. They kept teams at bay on the ground, only allowing 124 rushing yards a game, a statistic that puts them at No. 18 in the FCS. Paup was integral in developing Schult from an inside tackle to a defensive end, with Schult breaking the UNI record in tackles for loss in a game, tackles for loss in a season and career quarterback hurries. He led both Schult and Ales to All-Conference nods with Schult also being named to the STATS All-America second-team. Paup also stressed hard work off the field to his linemen, with Schult and Ales earning Academic All-America honors.

Paup was an integral part of UNI's defensive unit finishing ranked in the top-15 in the country in eight different statistical categories during the 2014 season. He led the defensive line to a No. 3 ranking in FCS football in team sacks, seeing defensive lineman Ales finish in the top-35 in tackles for loss and sacks. Under his direction, senior Xavier Williams was named to four different All-America teams and earn a spot in the Senior Shrine Bowl.

Paup led a talented defensive line during the 2013 season, seeing defensive tackle Xavier Williams earn All-America honors. Williams also earned All-MVFC recognition along with fellow defensive lineman Collin Albrecht. Paup coached the line to finish second in the MVFC in tackles for loss and third in team sacks where Albrecht finished in the top-30 in the FCS in sacks per game.

Prior to UNI, Paup served as the head coach at Southwest High School in Green Bay, Wisconsin, from 2007-2012, posting a 43-21 record.

He left UNI for one year to coach at Minnesota before returning in July 2018.

Paup played linebacker at UNI from 1986-1989, earning second team All-America honors in 1989.

Paup went on to have an 11-year career in the National Football League that was highlighted by him earning defensive MVP honors in the league in 1995 for the Buffalo Bills. Paup played from 1990-94 for the Green Bay Packers and moved on to Buffalo to play for the Bills from 1995-97. Paup played two seasons in Jacksonville for the Jaguars before capping his NFL career with the Minnesota Vikings in 2000.

He played 148 games in the NFL and drew 113 starting assignments. Paup was a four-time Pro Bowl selection and tallied 75 career sacks.

Paup has a wife, Denise and six children. His daughters are Rachel (17), Hailey, Lauren and Paige. He also has two sons, Alex and Nathan.

Savage joins the UNI football staff after spending the past season at Army West Point as the defensive quality control coach. Savage brings a wide range of experience to Cedar Falls, after making stops at Arkansas Tech (2015-16), Georgia Tech (2014), Valdosta High School (2013) and Auburn (2011-2012).

During his time at West Point, the Black Knights finished the season with 10 wins for only the second time in school history and won eight of their final nine games of the season to reach the milestone. Army capped the year with a 42-35 win over San Diego State in the Armed Forces Bowl, to vault the Black Knights into Bleacher Report's Top 25.

While at Arkansas Tech, Savage mentored a secondary led by second team GAC freshman safety Que' Rose while Wonder Boys defense finish in the top 25 nationally. The Wonder Boys defense did its best work against highly-rated opposition, holding three top-12 offenses to 125 yards below their season averages. The Wonder Boys picked up a big win in the Heart of Texas Bowl to cap a 9-3 campaign in 2015 with the second ranked defense in the conference. The resulting nine-win campaign was only the ninth time in school history that the nine-win threshold has been met and ranks as the fourth-highest win total in school history.

Savage previously spent a season as a graduate assistant at Georgia Tech, working on the defensive side of the ball with primary responsibility for the safeties. The Yellow Jackets finished the year 10-3 capped off with an Orange Bowl victory.

In 2013, Savage was an assistant coach at Valdosta High School coaching the corner backs, where he was also a ninth-grade teacher. The Wildcats earned a playoff spot in the GHSA football playoffs.

The previous two years, Savage was on the staff at Auburn University. He was the Special Teams Quality Control in 2011 as the Tigers were Chick-Fli-A Bowl Champions. In 2012 Savage served as Defensive Quality Control.

Savage was a Freshman All-SEC and Freshman All-American (Rivals) defensive back in 2006 at Auburn University. He missed all of the 2008 and 2009 seasons with injuries. In the national title season of 2010, Savage started the first seven games before a season-ending injury.

Savage earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from Auburn in 2008 before completing a master's in biomechanics in 2010. He is married to the former Coleigh Danielle Brock.

2017 SEASON REVIEW

RECAP OF THE 2017 SEASON

The Panthers were tasked with a tough slate to begin the 2017 season, playing only one game at home in the month of September, with road contests against Liberty Bowl-champion Iowa State and Big Sky-champion Southern Utah on the schedule.

UNI found a way to earn two wins during that span, but faced a murderers' row of top 10 foes in the second half of the season. With a 2-3 record, the Panthers had the task of kicking off their top-10 gauntlet against No. 7 South Dakota State on the road. Those odds didn't shake the resolve of the 2017 Panthers however, as UNI rattled off a 5-1 record down the stretch, including three victories over Top-10 opponents.

The incredible late-season run secured the football program's 19th postseason berth, as UNI finished second overall in the MVFC. The Panthers hosted a challenging 9-2 Monmouth squad in the opening round of the FCS Playoffs, which UNI dismantled 46-7 at home. The second round paired UNI with fellow MVFC-foe SDSU, who owned a national seed. The Panthers fell to the 10-2 Jackrabbits, who went on to earn a semifinal appearance to close out the year.

The fight and never-quit attitude of the 2017 Panthers was a direct result of the leadership on the team, which will be remembered as one of the most tenacious groups to ever wear the Purple & Gold. The mixture of experience and talent was a perfect formula for the 2017 squad, which posted a spectacular senior class and overall resume.

2017 SENIOR CLASS RESUME

- Three trips to the FCS Playoffs
- Beat 14 ranked teams, with eight wins coming against Top-10 foes
- Earned 31 victories overall, the most since 2008's class
- Posted three undefeated Novembers, tied for the most by any class under Mark Farley
- Finished in the Top-5 of the MVFC in all four seasons
- Played in 52 games, the most since 2008's class
- Played the 13th, sixth, eighth and fifth toughest schedule over their four seasons
- Earned the highest APR and GPA scores in program history

2017 TEAM RESUME
